

SALLIE SLICK AND HER SURPRISING AUNT AMELIA

1. "Aunt Amelia has the only window viewing the Coronation procession. Oh, bother!"

2. "Fire! fire! Run for your life, Auntie!"

3. "I fooled you that time, Auntie! I just wanted to get your place at the window!"

4. "Just watch me get Sallie away from that window!"

5. "I thought I would get my window again, Sallie."

6. "Too bad you are missing the procession, Sallie—it's the best one I ever saw!"

Joan Madsen

SALLIE SLICK AND HER SURPRISING AUNT AMELIA

1—(After the first night in London)—"Dear me, I wish we had some Yankee sunshine! Wonder if Aunt Amelia is up yet?"

2—"I'll have some fun with her."

3—"Aunt Amelia is asleep—and she can't see me in this fog."

4—"I won't do a thing to her!"

5—"Goodness! I wonder where she is?"

6—"Good morning, Sallie! How do you like these London fogs?"

SALLIE SLICK AND HER SURPRISING AUNT AMELIA

1 AUNT AMELIA—"I love it here in Italy; don't you, Sallie?"

2 BRIGAND—"Givra da puros, quick!"

3 "Quick, I say!"

4 AUNT AMELIA—"You rotten! I'll give you—"

5 "A few jale with this hat gone!"

6 "He didn't know me, did he, Sallie?"

Aunt Amelia Builds Some Snow Men for Sallie.

"Here's where I got one on Sallie."

"I'll make another snow man around this post and--"

"Oh, good morning, Sallie! Want to have some fun?"

"Let's knock the snow men to pieces."

"Oh, Aunt Amelia! My arm!"

"If you lie quiet, Sallie, you'll be able to get up Sunday."

Aunt Amelia Brings Sallie a Present, But Sallie Didn't Know It

Aunt Amelia—"By jinks, Sallie, I'm glad to get home!"

"Carry that grip carefully, Sallie dear!"

Sallie—"Oh, sugar! She never gets me anything!"

"I wouldn't have carried her old grip home if I had known that!"

"Oh, Sallie, you dropped the grip! What a shame!"

"I brought you that set of china you admired so much, and now it's all smashed!"